QUICK CURRENCY TIPS

Mongolia's currency ranges from 10 to 20,000 MNT. The 10,000 MNT note is the real workhorse—practical for most transactions.

Exchange at banks: Skip street changers and head to banks like Khan Bank or TDB. They accept USD, EUR, and CNY, common in the CAMCA region.

Small bills for local charm: Rural markets and family-run businesses prefer cash, so keep smaller denominations handy for a seamless experience.

Cards work in cities: In Ulaanbaatar, Visa and Mastercard are widely accepted, but in the countryside, cash is king.

TRANSPORT TO AND FROM ULAANBAATAR

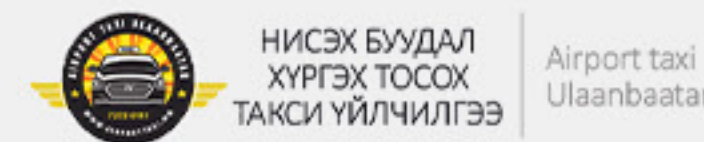

Taxis operate 24/7 to and from Chinggis Khaan International Airport, with fares ranging between $30 and $60, depending on the vehicle size.

MONGOLIA, VITAMIN D HAVEN

Don't forget to bring sunglasses! With Mongolia experiencing 250 days of sunshine each year, having shades is essential for enjoying your adventures without squinting.

Sunscreen will be your best friend as the high-altitude sun can be intense. A sunburned nose is not the souvenir you want to take home.

Mongolia's sunshine adds vibrant colors to every photo—your camera will love it.

DRESS IN LAYERS, ALWAYS

Mongolia's weather is as unpredictable as a yak on a bad day. Pack layers for windy days and chilly nights, not your usual sun gears.

SIMPLE TIPS FOR STAYING CONNECTED

Download yourself an offline map, because in Mongolia, the steppe might confuse your GPS.

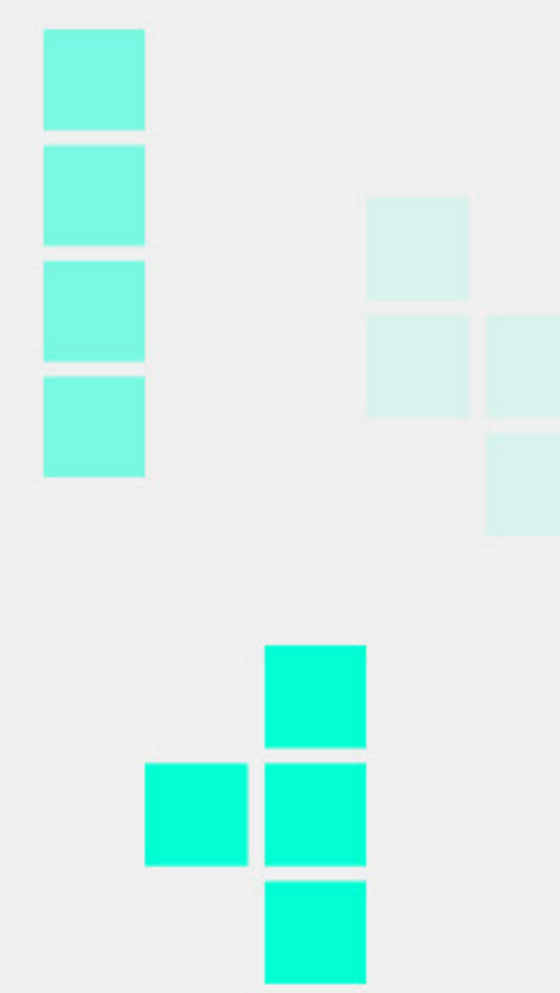

Forget about roaming charges, just grab a SIM card at the airport and go from "lost in translation" to "found with data!"

Download Google Translate with the offline pack—because your Mongolian might not roam as far as you do!

PACK PATIENCE, AS TRAFFIC JUNGLE AWAITS

Traffic in Ulaanbaatar is like a real-life game of Tetris, so be ready to sprint like a gazelle and squeeze through the chaos!

Comfy shoes will keep you on the move in style.

Plan adventures like hiking or riding under Mongolia's almost-guaranteed blue skies. So practice your horse riding pose!
